SIPPLE

GARRET SIPPLE, first of the name in Kent County, came from Accomac, Virginia, in 1658. He is said to have been a handsome young rogue, and it is recorded in Virginia, that he eloped with Mary Calvert, daughter and heiress of Christopher Calvert, for which escapade he was indicted in the Courts. Evidence points to birth around 1653, as son Waitman was born in 1673.

1—GARRET SIPPLE, Attorney at law of Kent County of Delaware, purchased from John Townsend and Sarah, his wife, by Deed of May 28, 1698, a plantation called "Townsend's Folly" on Murderkill Creek. Other persons of the Sipple name bought lands in Kent County, viz: JOHN SIPPLE, fifty acres on Murderkill Creek from Griffith and Ann Huse, May 7, 1711, and CHRISTOPHER SIPPLE, fifty acres of a tract called "Edmundson's Choice", from William Hilliard July 20, 1711.

The date of the death of Garret Sipple is not known. The records of wills and administrations of Kent County are lost, from 1708-1718-19. Reference is made 1718 in Records to Waitman Sipple, son and heir of Garret Sipple late of Kent County, so death was most likely around 1718.

CALEB SIPPLE of Kent County on Delaware, son of Waitman Sipple and Mary Huse, served during the the French and Indian War, as Lieutenant under Captain Daniel James in "The Lower District of Mother-Kill Hundred, Kent County in Delaware." He was commisioned March 29, 1758.

He died before his father as shown by the latter's will. Letters of administration on his estate were granted to his widow, Sarah Sipple, February 10, 1762. His children were mentioned in the will of their grandfather, Waitman Sipple, in 1762 and named in their grandmother Mary Sipple's will in 1767.

On February 27, 1765, Joseph and John Brinkle of Kent County on Delaware, granted to John, Caleb, Garrett, Thomas Sipple, yocemen, and Mary, Nancy and Elizabeth Sipple, spinsters, which said John, Caleb, Garrett, Thomas, Nancy, Mary and Elizabeth are the children and heirs of Caleb Sipple, deceased. And whereas the said Joseph Brinckle, and John Brinckle, Sr., father of the aforesaid Joseph and John on March 2, 1761, agreed to sell two hundred and twenty acres of land in Murderkill Hundred, near the drawbridge, to the said Caleb Sipple, who died before a deed was made; and Joseph Brinckle gave bond to convey the said land to the said John, Caleb, Garrett, Thomas, Nancy, and Mary and Elizabeth Sipple; and whereas Sarah Sipple, widow and administratrix of the said Caleb has complied with the bond, therefore they convey the said land.

2—WAITMAN SIPPLE, son of Garret and Mary Calvert Sipple, known as the "Elder" or first Waitman. He was born in 1763, and became one of the wealthiest citizens in Kent County. He possessed but little education, but was frequently called upon for advice in the affairs of the colony, and was greatly respected for his acute knowledge of land titles in the county. He received from the Proprietaries of the Province of Pennsylvania, a warrant for two hundred acres of land in Kent County, eighth month 30th, 1717. He acquired some of his father's real estate by deed of inheritance, and in November 14th in the fourth year of the Reign of King George, (1718) Waitman Sipple, son and heir of Garret Sipple late of Kent County, granted to Francis Alexander in consideration of £30, a tract of land called "Limerick", except half an acre reserved for burying ground—which land was purchased by the said Garret Sipple from John Townsend. The deed was acknowledged in Court November 14th, 1723, recorded June 8, 1724. On May 15, 1724, William Rodney sold to George Nowell and WAITMAN SIPPLE, gentlemen of Kent County for £125 a tract of five hundred and fifty acres of land called "Cypress Neck". His wife's name was LYDIA, her last name not known. One of his daughters married Major Andrew Caldwell. A granddaughter became the wife of Capt. John Warren. Among Waitman Sipple's descendants were the Booths, Motts and Killens. WAITMAN SIPPLE (copied from the Pennsylvania Gazette) died on the 7th inst in Kent County, on Delaware. Waitman Sipple, Senior, aged 99 years, wanting 5 days (1772).

This venerable gentleman has reputably filled the different characters of Master, Father and Husband. By great temperance, he prolonged his life to a great old age, with a very uncommon show of health, by great application and industry, he acquired plentiful fortune, which he generously shared with the poor and distressed. In domestic life he was uncommonly happy, he wisely avoided engaging so far in Public Disputes, as to interrupt his repose. His attachments were founded on principle and therefore lasting, his enmities if he had any, were so concealed as to remain unknown. Faults no doubt he had, but they were so inconsiderable as to be overlooked. His virtues were manifold, and secured the esteem of all who knew him. He has left a great number of descendants.

*"No further seek his merits to disclose
Or draw his frailties from their dread abode
For they alike in trembling hope repose
The Bosom of his Father and his God."*

3—WAITMAN SIPPLE, JR., son of Waitman and Lydia Sipple, born about 1702 died 1762. Bowman Sipple records, believe him to be the second son of same name, of Garret and Mary Calvert Sipple, but reference in the Records to his death in 1762, being some years before his father's decease, would clearly disprove this—GARRET SIPPLE died prior to 1718, while WAITMAN SIPPLE, SR., died in 1772, 10 years after the death of Waitman Sipple, Jr.

Waitman Sipple, Sr., was a member of the Religious Society of Friends or Quakers, and a member of the Duck Creek monthly meeting of that Society.

At a monthly meeting held at Little Creek, the 16th of the 8th month 1732.

"George Wilson and Patience Nock appeared here and continued their intentions of marriage with each other, and he produced a certificate from Third Haven monthly meeting in Maryland, which was satisfactory to the meeting, and nothing appeared to obstruct their proceedings, they were left to their liberty to accomplish their said marriage, according to the good order, and the meeting appointed Joseph Booth and WAITMAN SIPPLE to oversee the same, and see that good order be kept and report to the next meeting".

Waitman Sipple by William Farson informs this meeting that the marriage of George Wilson and Patience Nock, was accomplished in an orderly manner."

"At a monthly meeting held at Duck Creek the 22nd of the 4th month 1724.

"There appeared for George Creek, John McCool.

"For Little Creek, Timothy Hanson and Richard Richardson.

"For Murderkill Joseph Booth. For Coolspring, Thomas Barry.

"WAITMAN SIPPLE, JR., and MARY HUNN appeared here and declared their intentions of taking each other in marriage, it being the first time Thomas Barry and Joseph Booth, Jr., are appointed to make enquiry into the young man's cleanness in relation to marriage to others, and make report to our next Monthly Meeting.

"At a Monthly Meeting held at Duck Creek the 19th of the 8th month 1724, Thomas Barry reports to the meeting that the marriage of Waitman Sipple, Jr., and Mary Hunn was accomplished."

Later in the Bowman Sipple record it is stated that Waitman Sipple the ancestor, was evidently the younger son of Waitman.

On August 10th, 1725, Daniel Needham granted to Waitman Sipple, Jr., of Kent County, in consideration of £30 three hundred acres of land on Murderkill Creek.

On August 11th, 1749, Waitman Sipple, Jr., and Mary his wife, executed a release to John Hunn. This recites that whereas Nathaniel Hunn died intestate leaving a daughter MARY, since married to Waitman Sipple, Jr., therefore they convey their interest in the estate of Nathaniel Hunn, consisting of two tracts of one hundred and seventy acres, and sixty-five acres of land on Jones Creek, to the said John Hunn.

Indorsed,

Steelman's Deposition to support Waitman Sipple's Petition.

Copy deliver'd to the Govr of Maryland"

"At a Council held at Philadelphia, Friday the 13 June 1755.

Present :

"The Honourable Robert Hunter Morris, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor.

John Penn,                      Robert Strettell,
Joseph Turner,              Richard Peters, Esquire

A petition of Waitman Sipple was read in these words:

"To the Honourable ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania and the Counties of New Castle, Kent and Sussex, upon Delaware.

"The Petition of Waitman Sipple of the county of Kent, upon Delaware, most humbly sheweth:

"That whereas, your Petitioner upwards of Twenty years ago did purchase a Tract or Parcel of Land and Meadow Ground commonly called Teppahanah, lying within the reputed Lines of the said County of Kent, of divers Persons who originally seated and improved the same under the Honourable the Proprie-taries of this Province and the said Counties, and in their Right had been possessed thereof for many years, during all which Time they had paid their Taxes in the said County of Kent; But your Petitioner apprehending that the Persons of whom he had so purchased had not taken the proper and Legal steps to secure to themselves the Title of the said Land, did soon afterwards in his own Name obtain of the said Proprie-taries of this Province divers warrants for the same Land had them regularly laid out and located thereon.
Your Petitioner further sheweth, that he at a great Expense hath improver tha said Land and hath continued in the quiet and uninterrupted Possession thereof under his said Purchase and warrants until the second day of May last, when a certain Thomas Harris of Qween Ann's County, as Bailiff of the Lord Proprietary of Maryland, under a false Pretence that the said lands did of Right belong to the said Proprietary, and that there was great Arrears of Rent due to him thereon to the amount of Fifty-nine Pounds Two Shillings and six Pence Sterling money, did come to the Said Land and distrain one of your Petitioners Negro men and thirty one Head of his Cattle for the said Pretended Rent, and carried them away into the Province of Maryland, as may appear to your Honour by sundry affidavits and a notice of Distress under the hand of the said Thomas Harris herewith exhibited to you. To the End thereof that Peace and good Order may be preserved between the Inhabitants of the said Lower counties on Delaware and the Province of Maryland, agreeable to His Majesty's Royal Order, until the Determination of the Dispute subsisting between the said Proprietors about the Bounds of their Respective Provinces, and that your Petitioner in the meantime may be quieted in the Possession of the said Lands so long held under the Proprietor of this Province, and to the End also that the Tumulte and Disorders which would probably arise and be committed in case your Petitioner should take Remedy for the above Injuries he received by a legal course of Proceedure, he humbly prays your Honour's interposition in the Promises, and that you will be pleased to administer to him such Relief and give him such Instructions therein as you in your wisdom think proper and expedient: and your Petitioner as in duty bound will pray, etc.

Waitman Sipple

"Kent, upon Delaware, June the 8th, 1755"

"And the Facts being Pro'd by Depositions to the Satisfaction of the Governor and Council, a Draught of a letter was prepared to Governor Sharpe and approv'd and follows in these words:

Sir:-

I send you enclosed the Copy of A petition exhibited to me by Waitman Sipple of Kent County, upon Delaware, complaining that Thomas Harris, of Queen Ann's County, as Bailiff of the Lord Proprietary of Maryland, had enter'd into a Tract of Land which was taken up above Twenty Years ago under the Proprietors of this Province and the three Lower Counties on Delaware, and has even since been peaceable held and enjoyed by him under the said Grant, and distrained on his Goods for a large sum of money pretended to be due to the Lord Baltimore for arrears of Quit Rent. I am also informed that Anderson Brown, one of the Under Sheriffs, of Dorsets County with Some Others, in February last came to the House of one James Anderson, who lived in the said County of Kent, upon Land taken under the Proprietors of Pennsylvania, and upon Anderson's refusing to pay the sum of Money which he demanded for his Levy, seized him in a violent manner in order to carry him to Prison in the said County of Dorsets whereupon weapons were drawn and a quarrel arose between the contending Parties which was near ending in Bloodshed.

As it is to the Mutual Interest of the Proprietors of both Provinces to preserve Peace and good Order among the Inhabitants that live near the Borders or reputed Line till the final determination of the Dispute at present Subsisting between them, and Process of this sort may be attended with very fatal cosequenses if they are not timely discouraged, and are Infractions of his Majesty's Royal Order in Council made for quieting Tumults and Disorders on or near the Borders, I doubt not but you will join with us in sppressing them, and give Orders that his Lordship's Officers proceed no further in the Cases, that are the subjects of the Complaints I have mentioned above.

"I am, Sir, Your most humble servant,

"Rob. H. Morris.

The Will of Waitman Sipple, Jr., 1762

In the name of God Amen. Waitman Sipple of Kent County on Delaware, being sick and weak of body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory, praise be there fore given to Almighty God, do make and ordain this my present last will and Testament in manner and form following: that is to say, first and principally, I Commend my soul in to the hands of Almighty God, hoping through the merits, Death and Passion of my Savior Jesus Christ to have full and free pardon and forgiveness for all my sins, and to inherit everlasting life; and my body I commit to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my executors herinafter named, and as touching the disposition of all such temporal estates as it hath pleased Almighty God to bestow upon me, I give and dispose thereof as followeth:-

First, I will that all my debts and funeral charges shall be paid and discharged. Item, the remainder part of my movable estate I give the third part thereof to my well beloved wife Mary Sipple; and the remainder thereof to be equally divided amongst my five children, to-wit,—Waitman Sipple, Jonathan Sipple, Elijah Sipple, and my daughters Anna Farber, and Meriam Barrett; and one share, or the sixth part unto my son CALEB SIPPLE'S children, to them, their heirs and assigns.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my loving wife Mary Sipple, during her widow-hood, the plantation whereon I now dwell, but my will is that if my said wife should marry again, or at her decease, that the said plantation and the lands and marsh thereunto belonging shall be equally divided between my two sons Jonathan and Elijah Sipple, and to them their heirs and assigns forever.

Item; I give and bequeath unto my three sons Waitman, Jonathan, and Elijah Sipple, all the lands, marshes and swamps that I own lying in Mispillion hundred, and at Marsh Hope, to be equally divided between them their heirs and assigns forever, and I do hereby constitute and appoint my two sons Waitman Sipple, and Jonathan Sipple, my executors of this my last will and Testament, and I do hereby revoke, disannul, and make void all former wills and Testiments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof I the said Waitman Sipple to this my last will and Testament have set my Hand and Seal this twenty seventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty two.

Waitman Sipple.

Signed, Sealed and pronounced in the presence of Dan'l Robinson,
Silvester Tomson,
Henry Whitsour,

Codicil: Be it remembered to all whom it may concern that this latter clause was writ, and the legasies herein first bequeathed, before the sealing and delivery hereof.

Item; I give and bequeath unto my son Jonathan Sipple, one negro girl named Seelee to him his heirs and assigns.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my son Elijah Sipple, one negro boy named Jacob to him his heirs and assigns. In witness whereof I have hercunto set my Hand and Seal the year and day above written.

In the presence of Dan'l Robinson, Silvester Tomson, and Henry Whitsour. Proved February 11, 1762.
